

Nonlinear electrodynamics, regular black holes and wormholes

Monday, 2 October 2017 15:10 (170)

A brief review of the existing regular models in general relativity coupled to nonlinear electrodynamics (NED). These include regular, purely magnetic black holes and soliton-like configurations with a regular center and dynamic wormholes with a magnetic source. It is shown that systems with an electric charge cannot form such regular configurations.

Primary author(s) : Prof. BRONNIKOV, Kirill (VNIIMS)

Presenter(s) : Prof. BRONNIKOV, Kirill (VNIIMS)

Session Classification : Poster session and coffee&reception